

Churchdown Club & Bar January Newsletter

The return of the roast, six nations rugby and live music!

Memberships have been going well this month, please remember your membership card when you come to the club to renew and also to show your card for every drink transaction so that we can apply your discounts!!

February sees the start of the Six Nations Rugby, from Saturday 4 February we will be offering light basket meals on a Saturday afternoon and from Sunday 12 February our full Sunday afternoon roast will be returning. For the Sunday roast please book in, either at the bar or by sending us an email, then when you arrive on the day just order at the bar. Sunday roasts will be served from midday until 4pm and Saturday lunches 1pm until 5pm.

We have a great line-up of live music this year with at least one live music act a month, here are some dates for your diaries:

4 February	Pop Tarts
25 February	Tony's LIVE Jukebox
11 March	The Revolvers
18 March	The Vogwells
15 April	Posse & Rich
22 April	Cabin Club
13 May	Freefall
17 June	Woodchuck
8 July	Make Mine A Double
5 August	5Undercover

9 September Over The Hill
7 October Masterplan
11 November Thee Pulsations
2 December The Modul8ters
16 December Jukebox Graduates

Plus.... the return of our brilliant Folk & Ale festival 19-22 May and Cider & Music festival 25-28 August.

Our popular quiz continues on the last Friday of the month. We also have tickets behind the bar for our ticketed comedy night on the 4 March £8 for members and £10 non-members, this event will be held in the function room and from reading the reviews of Rick Sheehan is going to be hilarious so get your ticket next time you are in!!

Looking forward to seeing you soon for a drink, lunch or membership renewal
